SB 233 (Beall – D)

Foster Children - Records

- This bill would expand access for foster caregivers to view pupil attendance, discipline, grades, online communication, and other school documents, as specified. It clarifies that only a foster parent who has been appointed by the court as the child's educational rights holder is permitted to exercise all parental rights relating to pupil records and decision making, and prohibits a foster parent who has not been appointed as the child's educational rights holder from exercising those rights, as specified.
